EAST LIVERPOOL, O., THURSDAY, OCT. 18.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Secretary of State,
S. M. TAYLOR.

Judge of Supreme Court,
JOHN A. SHANK.

Member of Board of Public Works,
CHARLES J. GRACE.

Commissioner of Schools,
O. J. CARSON.

Congressman,
R. W. TAYLOR.

Prosecuting Attorney,
O. S. SPEAKER.

Commissioner,
SAMUEL BYE.

Infirmary Director,
C. D. FILLON.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY.

Of Ohio.

GIVE Foraker a welcome that he will not forget in a week.

LET the people turn out tonight.
Joe Foraker deserves recognition as a statesman who knows statesmanship.

COLUMBIANA county will prove to Coxey next month that his prevarications are not relished among intelligent people.

Go and hear Hon. J. B. Foraker tonight. He is an orator whose eloquence has electrified thousands and tens of thousands.

THE Toledo Blade gives the right
advice when it says to Republicans,
"Don't exult, but hustle." What we want is a majority that will put demoralized Democracy to sleep.

It is safe to say that a majority of the people who pretend to believe that R. W. Taylor is a member of the New York stock exchange are unable to tell a stock broker from a stock drover, and do not know what a stock exchange is, anyway.

THE tariff doctrine of Abraham Lincoln was simple yet effective, being contained in the argument that "if the United States has $10 and needs a ton of iron, and buys it in Europe, it has the ton of iron, but has parted with the money. If that sum of money is spent for a ton of iron made in this country then we have both the iron and the $10."

THE FOUNDATION.

Hon. J. W. Babcock, of Wisconsin, once gave utterance to this sentiment
in congress:

"The foundation of the prosperity of the American farmer and the American laborer is the continued operation of the American factory.
When the factory fires are extinguished nothing follows so surely as the enforced idleness of the laborer, and when this comes, the home demand for the farmer's product is gone. Every condition in American life is affected by the question of a protective tariff, and every man under the flag receives in a greater or lesser degree its benefits. It is no exaggeration to say that under the provisions of the bill under discussion the foreign manufacturer and foreign laborer would receive these benefits, and the American farmer at the same time
would be deprived of his home market, while the factory operatives, deprived of their means of livelihood, would be forced to the farm, thus increasing the supply of agricultural products and further lowering the prices of the same."

Where is there a man who will gainsay one word of this argument? Have there not been proof enough in the last year to prove it word by word?

A Pitiabie Case.

The attention of the News Review
has been called to the pitiable condition of a family living in Huston's addition. The woman, who is in a delicate condition, was deserted by her husband a short time ago, the man leaving her without money or provisions. Since then she has supported herself and children as best she could,
but the end is almost reached now
and the case presents a splendid opportunity for any charitably inclined people who may want to move in a good cause. Further information can be obtained at this office.

GOFF SAYS HIS COMB

Can't Scrape Up a Business
Not Paying Tribute

TO THE POLICE OF NEW YORK.

Soda Water Fountain Keepers Pay Them
Money—Caterers Must Pay the Police
For Attending Swell Society Events—A Man Who Challenged an Inspector.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Chief Counsel Goff continued to probe for evidences of blackmail at the session of the Lexow committee. He produced witnesses who testified that the police officials were accustomed to bleed the proprietors of soda water fountains on the east side.
Some one inquired whether he had discovered any line of business that had not been compelled to pay a tribute to the police.

"I have not," said Mr. Goff faceti-ously. "Though I have been searching the town over with a fine tooth comb."

The first witness of the day, Frank H.
Johnson, told the committee of another source of revenue to the police. His father is a caterer, and finding it necessary at some of the suppers given by the elite to stretch awnings across the sidewalks, he had often given the policeman assigned to attend these affairs $5.

Senator O'Connor brought out the fact that there were at least 500 policemen assigned to watch the buildings of private corporations. This service cost the city at least $600,000 annually and no compensating advantages were received. Mr. Goff said that this estimate was a low one and that the loss to the city was even greater.

One proprietor of a retail store admitted on the stand that he had challenged Inspector Williams to fight a duel. Williams had given Henry Mail-lard, the candy manufacturer whose building is located next to the store of Beyers, the right to use the sidewalks for his trucks. Beyers complained and said that it interfered with his business
as many of his customers were ladies.
Williams said that there had never been a lady in the store except his own wife.
During the controversy growing out of this affair Beyers had issued his challenge.

"And that challenge stands today," he said dramatically as he concluded his testimony.

A son of Beyer told a long story of a suggestion of Detective Dalton to the effect that the officer told him that things would be squared if he would give Williams a gold table in the window worth $200. Williams did not get the table, however.

A Pension Decision.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Assistant Secretary Reynolds of the interior department has decided that section 4718 of the revised statutes, relative to the payment of accrued pensions, is applicable to the pensioners under the act of July 27, 1892, granting pensions to the survivors of certain Indian wars. It is also held that the section authorizes the widow of the deceased soldier to prosecute his pending claim under that act and receive the accrued pension to the date of the soldier's death. This action reverses the decision of the commissioner of Pensions made in May, 1893.

Indicted For Printing Money.

St. Louis, Oct. 18.—A. W. Holmes, C. Cheney and E. A. Smith, officers of the St. Louis Bank Note company, have been indicted by the grand jury on the charge of having printed $200,000 worth of warrants for the state of Mississippi, which were being passed by them as money. This the government claims is in violation of the United States laws.

Amer of Afghanistan Dead.

CALCUTTA, Oct. 18.—A Lahir paper published a detailed account from native sources of the death of the amer of Afghanistan. In the description of the death scene, it is stated that the amer earnestly exhorted his eldest son, Sardar Habibulla Khan, to remain a friend of the British.

Corporation Interfering In Politics.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Oct. 18.—J. F.
Pierce, candidate for state auditor on the People's party ticket, has been notified by George L. Black, assistant superintendent of the Union Pacific company, that he must either withdraw from the ticket or leave the employ of the company. The order, it is said, comes from the receivers of the road.

Stauffer Is Better.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 18.—J. W. E.
Stauffer, who shot himself with suicidal

intent at Dober's hotel, in this city,
after having quarreled with his fiancée,
Miss Lois Starr, while they were enroute from Jersey City, is better. The doctors at Jefferson hospital pronounce their patient as being much stronger, but they will give no assurance as to his recovery.

THE FATED LOUISVILLE BRIDGE.

Another Accident In Which Three Pennsylvanians Are Hurt.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 18.—The ill-fated
new Louisville and Jeffersonville bridge has been the scene of an accident. Three men were hurt, one perhaps fatally.
The accident was caused by the falling of a part of the false work under the fourth span which had just been completed and locked. The men were engaged in removing the false work, which is to be moved to the fifth span to be completed. They were at work on the first bent or division of the structure.
The top timbers had nearly all been removed and the remainder of the section collapsed.

Harry Williams, Thomas Proseny and Lee Millhouse of Beaver Falls, Pa., fell with the falling timbers. Millhouse sustained a fracture of the right arm and two ribs. He also received internal injuries and it is thought he will die.
Proseny's arm and back were injured,
but he and Williams were able to walk to their homes in the vicinity their injuries being slight.

There have been a number of accidents since work was resumed on the bridge, but the company have taken no chances on a recurrence of the horror of last December. Several times when the train has attained a high velocity the men have been called from their work
until it had subsided.

Minister Terrell Successful Again.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—Mr. Terrell,
the United States minister to Turkey,
has successfully closed another international incident with credit to himself. On Sept. 8 last, the Turkish police pounced on several Americans at Aindah on a charge of sedition. Incidentally they undertook to search the American college at that town to discover papers bearing on the conspiracy. Mr. Terrell protested that this should not be done in the presence of himself or his representative. The Turkish government yielded this point, and Mr. Terrell has cabled Acting Secretary Ul that the search had been made in the presence of Mr. Riddle, his secretary of legation, that the parties arrested were exonerated and the incident closed.

Women Indicted For Attempted Bribery.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—Mrs. Warren
Springer, wife of the Chicago wiretapper, has been indicted for attempted bribery. Mrs. Springer's alleged attempt at corrupting a jurymen was made during a suit for the condemnation of some of her husband's property, brought by the Metropolitan Elevated railroad.

Mrs. Springer is a pretty woman, apparently not more than 25 or 26 years old. Her maiden name was Ferguson, and she comes of an old and well-known family in Newark, O.

Anti-Gambling Association.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—An international anti-gambling association has been incorporated under the laws of Illinois and with headquarters in Chicago. The incorporators are Edward F. Coff, the Rev. William G. Clarke and Thomas H.
McCauley, all of whom have hitherto taken active parts in moral reforms.
The board of managers includes Miss Frances E. Willard, Miss Ada C.
Sweet, W. J. O'Hanlon, Dr. Sarah Hackett Stevenson, Edward F. Coff and others.

Whole Family Probably Murdered.

HAMBURG, Oct. 18.—A sensation has been caused here by the mysterious disappearance of Herr Rothgatter, a leather merchant of the Hanzla Platz, his wife and four children and his brother-in-law, named Kruse. The body of the youngest child has been washed ashore at the island of Pinkenwaerder in the Elbe, and it is believed that the disappearance of the whole family may turn out to be a case of wholesale murder and suicide.

France's Ultimatum To Madagascar.

PARIS, Oct. 18.—The Estafette says that the ultimatum conveyed to Antannarivo by M. Le Myre de Vilers, the French special commissioner to Madagascar, stipulates that France shall exercise an exclusive protectorate over that country and that there shall be a permanent French garrison stationed at Antananarivo. Eight days are allowed to Madagascar in which to make a reply to these demands.

Steel Works To Resume.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 18.—The agreement reached between the Pennsylvania and Maryland Steel company's creditors will,

it is authoritatively announced, result in the early reopening of the Maryland
Steel company's big mills at Sparrows'
Point. The works, which employed 3,000 men, have been virtually closed for eight months.

Murdered by Burglars.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 18.—Charles Pearson, a special policeman employed by wealthy residents of Hyde park, was murdered by burglars at the residence of Arthur A. Mosher, president of the Air Line, at the corner of Humbolt and Cherry streets. Pearson's corpse was found at the entrance of the cellarway
at daybreak.

Ended the Chinese War Vessels.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The steamship Moyune, recently purchased in England
by the Japanese government, has arrived at Yokohama, having made the passage from Cardiff in 33 days, steaming 8,900 miles without stopping. Although Chinese warships were in the lookout for her, she had no difficulty in eluding them.

A Massachusetts Town Celebrating.

ATTLEBORO, Mass., Oct. 18.—This town is celebrating the 200th anniversary of the incorporation of Attleboro,
which then included the present towns
of Attleboro, North Attleboro and Cumberland, R. I. The absent sons and daughters of the town are joining with them in the festivities.

Another Rebellion In Hayti.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—From an official newspaper just received here from Hayti, it was ascertained that the president of the disturbed country, General Hippolyte, is preparing himself to meet another rebellion and is ready to deal in the most summary manner with the prime movers.

Stevenson at Danville, Ills.

DANVILLE, Ills., Oct. 18.—Vice President Stevenson spoke to a large crowd
in Lincoln park in this city.

Gas Company Bonds Stolen.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Stephen A. Dun-ton, residing at 179 Cornell street, Brooklyn, has reported to the police that his house was entered and that 50 bonds of the Montauk Gas company of West Virginia, of the value of $1,000
each, were taken from his desk.

Epidemic of Typhoid Fever.

LERANON, Pa., Oct. 18.—There is great excitement at Palmira, this county, over an epidemic of typhoid fever. In a town of 750 people there are 41 cases, and some of the patients are in a critical condition. Two deaths have occurred.

A Case of Glanders.

DELAWARE, O., Oct. 18.—A genuine case of glanders was found in the barn
of F. L. Waldren of Kingston township. The horse was ordered killed forthwith. It is feared that many other animals have been exposed.

5,000 Heard Wilson Speak.

PHILADELPHIA, W. Va., Oct. 18.—This place was captured by storm by the constituents of Hon. W. L. Wilson from Barbour, Taylor, Tucker and Randolph counties. About 5,000 heard Wilson speak.

Sherman at San Josky.

SANDUSKY, O., Oct. 18.—Hon. John
Sherman spoke here today.

Great Expectations.

What is the little bit of news that is flying about concerning Mrs. Dr. William T. Bull, who was better known as Marie Nevins Blaine? The news seems to be true, and every one will know of it before long. Meanwhile Dr. Bull is on tenterhooks.—New York Journal.

PYTHIAN KNIGHTS DECEASED.

Bogus Sick Benefit Orders Cashed All Over the Country.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 18.—The postoffice inspectors are working on frauds perpetrated upon Knights of Pythias lodges all over the country. The inspectors are reticent because their work is not completed and the knights will not talk except to say that the fraud is likely committed by a member of the order and that their officials turned the case
over to the postal inspectors.

Bogus sick benefit orders have been presented to lodges all over the country and cashed, securing $29 from each lodge. All signs and grips are said to be used by the swindler and blank orders were stolen from different lodges. At Logansport, Ind., 1,000 blank orders and travel vouchers from Apollo lodge number 1,000, were cashed at Bellow's Falls, Mo., Rutland, Vt., and other eastern points.

Emma Willard Association Banquet.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The Emma Willard association, of which Mrs. Russell Sage is president, has sent out its invitations to its fourth annual banquet to be held today at the Waldorf Hotel. A subject of especial interest is now engaging the attention of the members of the association. A biographical record of pupils in the course of the first half century is in preparation, and Mrs. A.
W. Fairbanks of Providence, herself a former pupil of the Troy seminary, has been chosen to compile and edit the work, which is to be one of magnitude.
Mrs. Fairbanks is the widow of A. W.
Fairbanks, formerly owner of the Cleveland Herald.

Servant King Visiting the Kaiser.

POTSDAM, Oct. 18.—Alexander, the 18-
year-old king of Serbia, has arrived here
from Budapest on a visit to Emperor William. Great preparations had been made for his reception, and it was generally understood that this meant that the visit had political significance. The railway station was beautifully decorated and a guard of honor was drawn up on the platform. The emperor greeted the king most cordially, and after an inspection of the guard of honor their majesties drove to the palace, escorted by the guards. A grand gala dinner was given at the new palace.

Riot at Republican Primaries.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 18.—A riot broke out at one of the polling places in the Seventh ward, where the Republican primaries were being held for the selection of delegates to the Republican city and the Twelfth district congressional conventions. Knives and pistols were drawn, and for a time it looked as if there might be bloodshed, but nobody received more than bruises. It was between A. P. A. men and their opponents.

Excitement Over a Mad Dog.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Oct. 18.—A large mad dog rushed among the school children in West Guthrie, and bit and lacer-ated Jessie Gates, aged 10 years, in such a fearful manner that it is believed she will die. The dog then attacked a team of horses. Two men attempted to shoot the dog, but the bullet struck Mrs. Littlejohn in the thigh and groin, inflicting a fatal wound.

Cincinnati Man Suicides.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 18.—Engene Scha-wecker, 31 years of age, a wholesale grocer and liquor merchant of Cincinnati, committed suicide at Mount Carmel cemetery on the grave of his first wife, by shooting himself through the heart. The suicide was deliberate.
Upon the body was found a letter to his second wife, Mrs. Kate Schaeffer, of 19 W. 11th street, Cincinnati, begging forgiveness.

Ex-Governor Beveridge Indicted.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—The federal grand jury has returned a true bill against ex-Governor John L. Beveridge, president;
F. D. Arnold, vice president, and Samuel
M. Bidson, secretary of the State Mutual Life Insurance company. The indictment charges the defendants with using the mails to further the business of a lottery.

Workman's Law Unconstitutional.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 18.—The supreme court, in a decision, holds that the law passed in 1892 creating a commission to rearrange the wards of Kenton, Hardin county, is unconstitutional. Ex-Representative Charles Workman was the author of it.

Not Guilty of the Robbery.

NASHVILLE, Oct. 18.—The jury in the case of Charles Hardin, Charlton Elrod, Charles Taylor and James Morris,
charged with the embezzlement of $35,
000 from the Adams Express company,
returned a verdict of not guilty.

A Fire Chief Perishes.

MUSKOGEE, Mich., Oct. 18.—During a fire in the yards of the Thayer Lumber company, John Ellens, assistant chief of the fire department, was buried under a pile of burning lumber and died shortly after being rescued.

Two Killed and Several Injured.

OKLAHOMA, O

A FRENZIED MOB.

Threats to Dynamite Washington C. H. (O.) Courthouse.

MORE TROOPS CALLED OUT

To Prevent the Lynching of Dolby, the Negro Rapist.

THREE KILLED BY THE MILITIA.

Two Others Fatally Wounded by the Soldiers' Bullets. A Number Injured. The Mob Made Several Assaults on the Courthouse and the Militia Finally Fled. Dolby Pleads Guilty and Is Sentenced to Twenty Years in the Penitentiary. The Sheriff Unable to Get Him to the Train to Take Him to Columbus. Dolby Remained in the Courthouse by the Aid of Populace. The Black Prisoners Prostrated With Fear.

WASHINGTON C. H., O., Oct. 18.—Dolby, the negro rapist, was gotten on to a train this morning and taken to Columbus. A long line of militia was stretched from the courthouse to the depot and the prisoner taken between the line of soldiers. Governor McKinley was a passenger on the train.

WASHINGTON C. H., O., Oct. 18.—Additional troops have arrived here from Cincinnati, Columbus and other points to help preserve order, in addition to the local troops and those sent from Columbus yesterday.

The people are frenzied and threaten to dynamite the courthouse.

The negro, William Dolby, pleaded guilty to criminally assaulting Mrs. Mary C. Boyd, aged 55, at Parrett's station, late yesterday afternoon, and was sentenced to 20 years in the penitentiary.

The mob surrounding the jail and courthouse attempted to take Dolby from the officers when removed from jail to the courthouse for trial, but were kept at bay by the free use of bayonets and clubbed guns.

When brought to the courthouse Dolby broke down. While bringing him from the jail the mob charged and almost succeeded in getting him. Henry Kirk, the brother-in-law of the assaulted woman, was knocked down the steps and badly bruised. Another man was bayoneted through the finger, while a bayonet was thrust through the clothes of another.

Deputies with revolvers drawn guarded the prisoner in the courtroom.

Dolby cried like a baby, and kept looking around for help. Soldiers were marched in to keep the crowd quiet. After the sentence the prisoner was taken to the grand jury room. A mob gathered about the courthouse, and it was impossible to get the prisoner through to take him to the train.

The officers were powerless to get Dolby from the courthouse to the jail or to the train, and Sheriff Cook wired the governor to send more troops. The mob grew rapidly in numbers and desperation. Colonel Coit made a speech asking the crowd to disperse, but it was received with jeers. The prisoner was prostrate from fear, and lay crying and moaning all the time. The mob kept Dolby and his guards prisoners in the courthouse until 6 p. m. and then made an attack. The militia repelled them without firing at first, but at 6:45 the south door was forced open by the mob. This door opens upon the street, which was filled with men, women and children. The detachment of the guards finally fired on the attacking party, none of the latter being hurt, but a dozen or more persons in the street were struck, two killed outright and three more were fatally wounded, one having since died.

The killed are: Smith Welsh, aged 18, son of a prominent grocer, shot through the head; Jesse Judy, aged 25, mechanic, shot through heart; and G. W. Johnson, Giles station, Butler county, shot through the stomach.

The wounded are: William Starr, aged 35, mechanic, shot in abdomen, will die; George Keating, shot through legs and groin, will die; Theodore Aumman, aged 22, artisan, shot through right thigh; Dan Parrett, aged 30, farmer, cousin of the outraged woman, shot in the right foot; and Frank Niederhaus, aged 65, shot in left leg. John McCune, John K. Orr, Ernest Ellis and Frank Smith also received wounds.

It is believed that many others are wounded, and a diligent search is in progress to find them.

After the riot the mob dispersed in all directions. Immediately all places of business in the city were shut up. Mayor Creamer peremptorily closed all places where liquors were sold. Every street was filled with people. No time was lost in carrying away the dead and wounded. Business houses and the machine house were converted into hospitals. All the surgeons in the city were called into service. Mothers, sisters and sweethearts crowded around the dead and wounded and added pathos to the scene and fire to the rage of the mob by their lamentations.

Against the militia the indignation was bitter, vicious and vehement. It pervaded all classes. As the time passed the mob grew in size and fury. All over the country, by telephone, by carrier and by electric wire, the news spread.

All the roads leading to the city were closed with men on horseback, in wagons and on foot, pushing with all possible speed to the scene of bloodshed, breathing vengeance at every step. Meanwhile, in Washington Court House, a search was going on for arms and ammunition and for dynamite. Shouts were heard, "Down with the militia," "Blow up the dogs along with the black fiend."

These shouts but feebly expressed the pent up passion of everybody, for everybody was in the street and all in the street were members of the mob, as far as at least as personal feelings were concerned.

There is certainly organization of the forces going on, for that ominous stillness that forbodes supreme excitement and deadly resolution, succeed the ebullition of feeling. Men move about as if bent on business, but say nothing. There is no doubt a purpose to blow up the courthouse. Of this the militia are aware. There is danger of further bloodshed between an organized mob and the militia, and in case the mob succeeds there is danger that many of the militia will share the punishment that is to be meted out to Dolby if he can be captured.

A Warehousemen's Convention.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 18.—A meeting of importance to warehousemen and storage companies throughout the country is being held here. It is the annual convention of the American Warehousemen's association. This association was organized in October, 1891. The two first meetings were held in Chicago. The third was held in Louisville. The officers at present are: President, F. A. Warner, Chicago; secretary and treasurer, Percy Thompson, Kansas City; executive committee—J. R. Price, chairman, Cleveland; F. A. Warner, Chicago; Percy Thompson, Kansas City; M. W. Howard, Denver; T. S. McPheters, St. Louis; W. W. Rossiter, New York; W. G. Caldwel, Louisville; Philip Godley, Philadelphia; and S. Bailey, Jr., Pittsburgh.

Tried to Murder an Attorney.

DELAWARE, O., Oct. 18.—The little town of Galena, all agog over the reported attempt on the life of Al Whitney, a well-known attorney in the celebrated Bennett-Boggs case. The alleged attempt to kill is said to have been made by E. A. Bennett, brother of Lela Bennett, who was kidnapped by Sam and Ed Boggs several years ago. Attorney Whitney was sitting in his buggy near Maxtown, talking to a man on business. Bennett drove up by the side of his buggy, reached for his hip pocket and, with an oath, said: "I'll fix you!" The attorney laid the lash to his horse, and it was due to this faithful steed that he escaped injury at Bennett's hands.

Beat an Injured Man.

UPPER SANDUSKY, O., Oct. 18.—Two neighbors, Hart and Black, sat up with Jack Greenow, at Carey, who had his leg amputated by a boiler explosion. Toward midnight Black told Hart that he would remain the rest of the night alone. Greenow suspected something and advised Hart to go for neighbors. While Hart was gone Black beat Greenow in an unmerciful manner. The injuries may prove fatal. The case has no parallel and the citizens of Carey are indignant. Lynching is talked of and trouble is expected if Greenow dies.

Had Involved Doddridge's Wife.

WASHINGTON C. H., O., Oct. 18.—William Doddridge severely injured. A Weston, a well-known freight conductor on the C. & O. R. R. Doddridge claims that Weston walked into his house and insulted his wife. His wife screamed and attracted the attention of her husband, Mr. Doddridge, who, when he saw the situation of things, struck Conductor Weston and knocked him down and stamped upon him. The doctors say they cannot tell the extent of his injuries, but if the brain is seriously injured he may die. If his wounds are less serious, he may recover.

Courts Quarrel Over a Prisoner.

DELAWARE, O., Oct. 18.—There is a hitch between the courts of this country and the United States courts over the possession of W. R. Winters, who is implicated in an $18,000 bounty script steal from the county. The United States courts want him and Winters' attorneys do not want him tried here. The United States marshal has demanded the prisoner, that the higher courts may deal first. Prosecutor Carpenter and Sheriff Griffith refuse to deliver the prisoner.

Shot by Express Messenger.

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 18.—At Latty, Paulding county, as the express messenger on the eastbound Nickel Plate train was throwing off packages, a strange man picked up a package of fur garments and started to run. The messenger fired, hitting the robber in the side. He dropped the package and escaped after a half mile chase, being picked up by a buggy with two men, evidently waiting for him. His entire route could be traced by the blood he lost.

Crushed by a Straw Stack.

BLANCHESBURG, O., Oct. 18.—John Dummford, a farmer living near West Woodville, and two companions were hatching a large load of straw, which was blown over, wagon and all, by a high wind. Dummford fell on top of a packet fence, the straw fell on him, pinning him to the pickets. His whole side was crushed in, and he was almost smothered by the straw before he could be rescued by his companions.

The Bosler Law All Right.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 18.—The supreme court holds the Bosler law, rearranging the sub-divisions of the Second Judicial district, to be constitutional and valid, and has granted the order of mandamus asked for by A. C. Robinson against Sheriff H. C. Jacob of Darke county requiring him to issue his proclamation for holding elections of judges under it.

The Law Constitutional.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 18.—The law establishing a limit about the Soldiers' home within which it is unlawful to sell intoxicating liquors, has been held constitutional by the supreme court. The decision was made in a test case brought up by Nelson Driggs, a saloon-keeper near the Soldiers' home at Dayton.

Ex-Senator Wilson Dying.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 18.—Ex State Senator Horace Wilson is dying at his home in this city. He represented Franklin and Pickaway counties in the senate in 1881-82. He is 71 years old.

Ohio Regiment's Reunion.

MAYSVILLE, Ky., Oct. 18.—The tenth annual reunion of the Seventeenth Ohio regiment is being held at Aberdeen today and tomorrow.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17.—HOGS—Market weaker at $4.00 to $4.10. Receipts, 5,000 head; shipments, 1,500 head. CATTLE—Market easier at $2.00 to $2.10. Receipts, 1,500 head; shipments, 200 head. SHEEP—Market steady at $2.00 to $2.10. Receipts, 2,500 head; shipments, 1,500 head. Lambs steady at $1.50 to $1.60.

THREE BANDITS TAKEN

The Virginia Train Robbers Being Rounded Up.

ONE HELD UP A NUMBER OF MEN

Before Finally Submitting to Arrest. The Money Found on the Man Caught at Cumberland, Md., Identified—Little Known of the Third Man Arrested.

CUMBERLAND, Md., Oct. 18.—No further doubt can possibly exist that one of the Aquia creek (Va.) train robbers has been caught in this city. A web of circumstances and convincing evidence has been woven about the prisoner who gives the name of C. J. Searcy.

By the first train from Washington a party of Pinkerton detectives arrived, including Captain F. H. Hinde, who had just returned from the scene of the robbery. He was accompanied by Crutcheff, the messenger in charge of the car at the time of the holdup. In the prisoner's possession was $1,051.52 in cash, of which $897 was in greenbacks.

When Mr. Hinde saw the roll of greenbacks he held them up to the light and examined them closely, declaring there was no further doubt that the prisoner was one of the robbers. He showed that every one of the notes had small perforations. In every package of money shipped by the Adams Express company the notes are stitched together, leaving when separated, tiny holes, which a person could not fail to discover upon examination. Every note contained these holes in the places where they would be made by the person making up money packages.

When arrested the prisoner inquired upon what charge he had been taken, and when informed answered at the idea of his being a train robber. He was closely questioned by Chief Pitzer, and said he had no money and wanted to be searched. His request was quickly complied with, and when the money was pulled out of the satchel, together with other valuables, he became very uneasy.

On his person was also found a pawn ticket showing that he pawned a Masonic ring in Washington, on Sept. 27. When questioned as to how the articles and money came into his possession, the man told a wild story about carrying money for over a year, but gave no account of the other goods.

The prisoner gave his name as C. J. Searcy and his home as Fort Dodge, Kan. He acknowledged having been in Front Royal, Va., where he was seen two days ago and said he walked to Shenandoah junction in search of work. He refused to say anything about his companion who rode to Shenandoah from Front Royal, or why he chose to walk instead of riding when he had so much money in his possession.

His companion is believed to be still in this city and the police are making a very careful search for him. Searcy was arrested at the depot by Office Beck while boarding an express train for the west. In his possession was found a memorandum book showing where the entire booty had been divided between the men. In his satchel were found old muddy shoes, a slouch hat, and wearing apparel that looked like disguises.

Another man has been arrested at Cherry Run, W. Va. He is quite a desperate character. He held up a number of men with a 44-caliber revolver, but was finally arrested. He answers the description of another man implicated. The third is said to be at Berkeley Springs though the location of the last two men is being kept quiet by the authorities. The express officials and detectives are delighted at the captures and now feel sure that the apprehension of the remainder of the gang will be accomplished soon.

Differences With Colombia Settled.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—A sharp diplomatic disagreement between the United States of Colombia and the United States of America has been brought to a close by the repeal of reciprocity treaties in the new tariff law. The difference grew out of and has existed ever since President Harrison in March, 1892, issued a retaliatory proclamation against Colombia, under the provisions of the McKinley act, because of a reciprocity treaty with the United States. Senator Hurtado, the Colombian minister, protested against the proclamation and after a warm correspondence with Secretaries Blaine and John W. Foster, left Washington and has returned but once since, that occasion being a call on Secretary Gresham.

The Omaha Judges' Conflict.

OMAHA, Oct. 18.—A thousand people crowded the criminal branch of the district court to witness the second chapter in the conflict between Judge Scott of that department and the other five judges of the district. The other five judges of the district respectively transferred the libel case against Editor Ruckewitz of the Bee to some other judge owing to the allegation of prejudice made against Scott. After criticizing the other judges for interfering in the affair, Judge Scott, on motion of the county attorney, dismissed the case, declaring that if he could not try the case it should not be tried. Preparations have been made by the other judges to secure a supreme court mandamus to compel Scott to transfer the case.

Bad Pennsylvania in Colorado.

TRINIDAD, Colo., Oct. 18.—A man named Ungers, who came from Pennsylvania about three weeks ago, in a quarrel over a game of cards at Hastings, shot Antonio Precado and fatally wounding the latter. The murderer took refuge in his cabin and fired upon the officers who attempted to arrest him. A crowd surrounded the house and then Ungers surrendered. He was brought to this city to prevent lynching.

Morton's Coachman In Court.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—The case of John James Howard, Levi P. Morton's coachman, who is detained as a contract laborer, came up before Judge Lacombe of the United States circuit court at the United States circuit court at 3 o'clock this afternoon. General B. F. Tracy and Frank H. Platt appeared for Howard. The attorney general has directed the United States district attorney to take charge of the case.

LOCAL BREVITIES

The little daughter of E. R. Woodward is seriously ill with an attack of croup.

Charles Lockhart has severed his connection with M. R. and G. M. Adam.

Mrs. Bulger, the aged mother of Alvin H. Bulger, is ill at her home on Sixth street.

Two weddings in addition to those already made public are said to be listed for the next few weeks.

Miss Mamie McKinney will entertain with a birthday party at her home on Second street on Monday evening next.

Several from this city attended a corn husking and dance given at the home of Joseph Potts, opposite Neal's station, last night.

Third street residents, at the corner of Washington, were visited by a crowd of serenaders last night and not until midnight did the racket cease and the people seek the goddess of slumber.

It has been learned that the mechanism of a clock suitable for the new school building will cost in the neighborhood of $600. This does not take in the price of dials and placing in position.

The News Review prospers because it is the best paper in East Liverpool. The job rooms of the News Review are crowded with work because from there is turned out the best printing ever seen in the city.

A farmer remarked today that the corn crop would be a little better than was anticipated, but corn would not be used largely as feed for stock, since wheat continued so cheap that it was hardly worth sending to town.

The workmen on the improvements at the First Methodist Episcopal church are being considerably inconvenienced by the failure of a quantity of material in arriving. The stairway cannot be built until the material arrives.

Mrs. Anne Green, mother of Charles Green, the new deputy in the office of the county treasurer, will move from this city to New Lisbon early next month. The lady has many friends to wish her a pleasant life in her new home.

The New Lisbon Presbyterian church will probably be built of stone. Architect Scott, of this city, is working on plans for the new edifice and has been notified of the directors' change of opinion regarding the style of building.

The Weary Farmers club gave an enjoyable ball in the Junior Mechanic hall, News Review building, last night. About 35 young people were present, 40 invitations having been issued, and the pleasant affair continued until midnight.

A horse hitched to a buggy scared at Poland's sign, in the Diamond, yesterday afternoon and started on a wild dash down Market street. Mr. Vaughn, an employee of W. H. Prier, ran out and succeeded in stopping the frightened beast in time to avert an accident. The horse belonged to a Calcutta farmer.

George Buchheit, of Second street, returned yesterday afternoon from the Sistersville oil region, where he has been some weeks looking after his interests. He is pleased with the manner in which affairs are booming in that section, and says the prospects are for a continuation of the present scenes of activity.

The cases against the three East End boys, charged with stealing rides on street cars, has resulted in one of the parties appearing before Mayor Gilbert, having the charge withdrawn and paying the costs. One of the others will probably be arrested, while the third, being able to prove his whereabouts on the night in question, will hardly be bothered.

October is proving like the preceding month, an unusually healthy one for East Liverpool. So far during the two months there has not been more than a dozen deaths and physicians generally say that sickness is not found in any alarming or even unusual number of cases. Health Officer King has had no contagious diseases reported to him this month.

There was an accident on the river yesterday afternoon, and a clerk in an uptown store mourns the fact that his best clothes have been warped out of shape and must be pressed. The trouble was caused by a fall from a boat in which were seated several bottles of whisky and a friend. If the liquor had remained in the bottle the clerk would not have fallen into the river, and there would not be a tailor bill to pay.

It is conceded by the most enthusiastic members of the Ceramic City Cycle club that the organization has proved a failure and that there is little or no hope for its resurrection soon. The ineffectual attempts made to hold meetings have demonstrated that little interest was being taken and not sufficient in the way of establishing headquarters. It is thought the club will be reorganized next spring.

An Honest Blacksmith.

Yesterday the little son of Mrs. Green, of Fourth street, took a pocket-book containing $16.33 out of the house and lost it in the street. It was found by Mr. Blours, a blacksmith who has been employed at the East Liverpool Pottery company, but is now out of work. Instead of putting it in his pocket as many would have done he advertised the find in the News Review, and Mrs. Green got her money last evening.

Coming Attractions.

The following attractions are booked for the Grand Opera House during the balance of this month: Saturday night, "Cross Roads of Life"; Barry O'Neill in "Irish Inspiration," 22; "His Nibbs the Baron," 23; Imperial Burlesque company, 27; "Sidelacked," 29; "Down in Dixie," 31. Manager Orr is not certain about the shows on Monday evening next and the 31st of the month, but thinks they will come.

Placed Under Bond.

The Wheeling Intelligencer, of yesterday, says that the United States court at that place placed Elwood Pusey under $200 for employing a pilot and engineer not licensed, and James Grim and William Bloor were treated in the same manner for serving in their respective capacities. The case will be heard at the next term of court. The penalty is a fine of $100 in each case.

Jackson Bound Over.

Jackson, the man who was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Mrs. Mary Smith, was before Squire Manley this morning to answer a charge of assault and battery. There was fun in abundance since the case of the defendant was upheld by a number of small boys who acted as witnesses, and a bevy of ladies did like duty for the plaintiff. Jackson was bound to court, the bail being fixed at $100.

Gospel Meeting.

Arrangements have been made for another gospel meeting in the Grand Opera House next Sunday afternoon. This has nothing to do with another meeting which it is believed will be held later in the day at the same place. Reverend Whitehead will preach at the gospel gathering. It is the intention of those in charge to have a meeting of this character every week. Services will commence at 2 o'clock.

A Good Proportion.

Recently several men stood at the Diamond well, all of them known to each other when a News Review man who had been commissioned to test political sentiment asked each one his politics. There were seven Republicans, one Democrat, and a Prohibitionist. There was no reason to believe that each was not telling the truth. All were in favor of protection on pottery.

At the Grand.

There is any quantity of realism in the "Cross Roads of Life," which comes to the Grand on Saturday evening. A warm hearted sailor, villainous convict and a pretty girl with a fortune are characters which never fail to interest the audience. Edmund Collier delineates a character worthy his magnificent powers.

There is no medicine so often needed to every home and so admirably adapted to the purposes for which it is intended, as Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I have a week, passes but some member of the family has need of it. A toothache or headache may be cured by it. A touch of rheumatism or neuralgia quieted. The severe pain of a burn or scald promptly relieved and the sore healed in much less time than when medicine has to be sent for. A sprain may be promptly treated before inflammation sets in, which insures a cure in about one-third of the time otherwise required. Cuts and bruises should receive immediate treatment before the parts become swollen, which can only be done when Pain Balm is kept at hand. A sore throat may be cured before it becomes serious. A troublesome corn may be removed by applying it twice a day for a week or two. A lame back may be cured and several days of valuable time saved or a pain in the side or chest relieved without paying a doctor bill. Procure a 50 cent bottle at once and you will never regret it. That New Freight Depot.

It is asserted that the Pennsylvania company still adhere to the plan for a new freight depot on the hill. A number of persons declare that some officials were here this week looking over the ground, and that the building was located on some land owned by the company on the Horn switch.

Every mother should know that croup can be prevented. The first symptom of true croup is hoarseness. This is followed by a peculiar rough cough. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is given freely as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even after the cough has developed it will prevent the attack. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. THE BRACELET.

Why lie about thy wrist,
Julia, this my stolen twist
For what other reason is't?
But to show thee how in part
Thou art pretty captive art?
But thy bond slave is my heart.
The but silk that bindeth thee,
Keep the thread, and thou art free.
But 'tis otherwise with me.
I am bound and fast bound, so
That from thee I cannot go.
If I could, I would not so!

ROBBED BY THEIR GUESTS.

Hotel Keepers Complain of the Continual Theft of Small Articles.

It is a fact well known to every hotel and restaurant keeper in the city that people will steal. Why they resort to peculation is a mystery, but a far greater mystery seems to be wrapped up in the class of articles that are stolen.

Guests who stop at first class hotels and pay their bills in departing have been known scores of times to take with them toilet soap and towels from their rooms. Blankets, sheets, clocks and ornaments likewise disappear with the departing transients.

Nor does the peculation stop at this. Cheap plated trays, cutlery, forks and spoons plainly marked with the names of the hotels are stolen again and again. This seems strange, for if the articles are used by the thief they bear, of course, the indelible evidence of the guilt of the peculators.

Sometimes the stolen articles are recovered, and sometimes they are not. Only recently the proprietor of a local hotel advertised repeatedly and offered a large reward for the return of a valuable clock of large size, which had been taken from the hotel and in a manner never discovered. All the advertising was in vain.

The late John Hoey once succeeded by a shrewdly worded letter in recovering a valuable rug which a well known New York woman had taken with her. As soon as its absence was noted from the Hollywood Mr. Hoey caused to be written to the woman a letter which read substantially as follows:

"DEAR MADAM—In packing your clothing your maid by mistake included the Turkish rug which was in your room. Kindly have it returned."

The woman had no maid, which fact was well known to herself and to Mr. Hoey. The assumption that the theft was not her act afforded her an opportunity to return the stolen article, which she did at the earliest possible moment, sending with it at the same time a note apologizing for the stupidity of the "maid."—New York Herald.

Pressure Sustained by Divers.

Have you any idea of the enormous pressure sustained by submarine divers while plying their dangerous vocations? We will take 100 feet as the average depth at which such tradesmen work and use that as a basis of calculation. At a depth of 100 feet, which does not seem excessive when we consider the fact that there are spots in the oceans which are approximately five miles deep, the pressure on the diver's body is 44 pounds for each square inch of surface. Let us see what this means. The average man of 156 pounds has a body of sufficient proportions to present 12 square feet of surface to the pressure of the waters. This means that the ordinary diver must work in a place where his body is subjected to a pressure of 38 tons. Nor is this all. For every 27 1/2 inches of depth descended below the 100 foot line which we have adopted as a basis of calculation there must be added one pound pressure to each square inch of the diver's bodily surface. Persons who think that divers regularly descend to the bottom of the oceans in the deepest places will probably be surprised to learn that the greatest depth to which man has as yet attained is only 210 feet.—St. Louis Republic.

How to Whiten the Whiskers.

A farmer in Bucks county, with black hair and mustache and a three days' growth of snow white whiskers, dropped into a Ninth street barber shop, and in the course of conversation with the loquacious artist it appeared that the farmer had for years shaved himself with a jackknife. He thought that perhaps that had something to do with the peculiar lustrous contrast, and the barber promptly confirmed his opinion. "The pulling of a dull razor on the roots of the whiskers," said the barber, "destroys in a short time all the oil and pigment that gives color. Most men have too much regard for their nerves to keep it up long enough to turn the beard entirely white, but many partially gray ones are due to that cause. A keen blade improperly handled is equally harmful, as a close scrape of the skin results in numberless seed wars, which can only be removed by a surgical operation."—Philadelphia Record.

Marriage In High Life.

"So your sister is married?"
"Yes, and she did very well—splendidly. You have heard of the Duke of Westminster?"
"Oh, yes! Did she marry into that family?"

"Well, yes, so to speak. She married a nephew of the Duke of Westminster's chief cook. He's the driver of a bus."—Glasgow Herald.

HIS FINGER FOR A NEW NOSE.

The Remarkable Operation of a London Surgeon on a Noseless Man.

The achievements of American surgeons in bold and extraordinary operations have long been the wonder of the world, but now from the other side of the Atlantic comes a story which shows that the old country is waking up a bit in the art of engraving living human flesh. A young man has put his finger to his nose, and it remains there permanently.

A few months ago a youth, whose nasal organ was missing as the result of an accident, called at Charing Cross hospital, London, with the request that the surgeons would supply the deficiency, artificially or otherwise. He expressed himself as willing to undergo any sort of treatment by which his disfigured face might be made fairly presentable and not absolutely repulsive to his best Sunday summer girl. Mr. Bloxam, the senior surgeon, took the interesting case in hand.

First the amputated finger of another patient was carved and fashioned to the semblance of a nose and then securely grafted on the face. But it was found that this mutilated digital appendage had not survived its cutting up. It was "dead" and failed to take fresh root.

The noseless man, nothing daunted, thereupon agreed to the surgeon's suggestion that one of his own (the patient's) fingers should be cut off to furnish a nasal organ, but in order that the finger should not be wasted in the event of this operation being unsuccessful it was only half amputated. The patient's arm being incased in plaster, for four weeks he held his own live finger to his face in the hope of its taking root. This it did. The portion which was still attached to his hand was then cut through and soon joined the rest in adhering firmly to the face. Although minus a finger, the young man now has a new nose of his own flesh and blood.

The transferred cartilage has been so manipulated by clever Dr. Bloxam that its original identity is entirely lost, and the further process of shaping it is now being proceeded with.—New York World.
